Harold Keller Public Service Leadership Award

At the 2011 national tournament in Dallas, Ryan Mulholland earned recognition as the recipient of the Harold Keller Public Service Leadership Award. This honor, named for NFL Hall of Fame Coach Harold C. Keller, recognizes former Congressional Debate participants who have made significant contributions to their community, state, or nation through public service leadership.

Mr. Mulholland is chief executive officer and principal founder of Ptolemy Data Systems, a technology company based in Sheridan, Wyoming, where he has served on the city council. Previously, he was a deputy sergeant with the Sheridan County Sheriff's Office, where he was involved in planning, development, and implementation of an extensive and highly secure law enforcement computer network.

Mr. Mulholland is married with two children and a third on the way. His father and coach, Harold Mulholland, is a diamond coach and longtime parliamentarian at the National Congress, now coaching at Mexia High School in Texas.
